

Moment of Truth: Kasisto — Video Transcript

[MUSIC]

The power of human language is the future of banking.

So we built a conversational virtual assistant called Kai, a simple, easy, and elegant way for banks to engage with their customers. Working closely with Wells Fargo Startup Accelerator expanded Kai's capabilities. They encouraged us to think out of the box.

This kind of thinking created new use cases that we didn't think about, new ways for users to better understand and better manage their money, but more importantly, making customers happy.

And Kai is just the first step in their journey.
